Welcome to Age UK Buckinghamshire. We are a leading provider of services and support to older people in Buckinghamshire. We help people to live independently, make the most of their lives and age well.

Buckinghamshire is a county in South East England, located to the north west of London. It stretches from the River Thames in the south and the Buckinghamshire New Towns to the north. It is bordered by Greater London to the south east, Berkshire to the south, Oxfordshire to the west, and Hertfordshire to the north. The county contains a diverse range of landscapes, from the Chiltern Hills to the low-lying floodplains of the Thames.