Evangelization From A Liberation Perspective

Priscilla Pope-Levison

discussed theology from the perspective of women in Latin America theologians, the focus is on the evangelization and liberation of oppressed. From this perspective, evangelization is one of the main demands are also a sign of the salvation of the spirit, namely liberation from sin. Likewise, Gustavo Gutiérrez has argued in A Theology of Liberation for the redefinition of “evangelization” from a liberationist perspective.